BE IT HEREBY ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Title: An act to establish a compensation system for current third-world countries that have been ruled under the guise of a protectorate or sphere of influence.

Body:

Section I: All current third-world countries that have been controlled by another country sometime since the fifteenth century will be paid compensation in order to make up for the years of servitude.

Section II: This compensation will come from the ruling countries. Ruling countries will pay .001% of their total GDP over the course of one year to countries they have held under protectorate status.

Section III: Countries will qualify if they are currently considered a third-world country and if they have been claimed as a protectorate or sphere of influence; therefore, if the majority of their natural and economic resources have been unwillingly allocated to the ruling country.

Section IV: The countries receiving compensation will be allowed to utilize the money however they see fit given that it is used to better the county. This could include public service such as schools, hospitals, and libraries, etc.

Section V: This proposal will go into effect 1 year after passage.
