INSPIRING YOUTH VOICES

Metro Youth Advocates

Metro Youth Advocates is an 8-session program designed to develop leadership and advocacy skills in high school students. We will explore issues relevant to our community through presentations from local leaders, research, teamwork, and open dialogue. We are looking for a diverse group of young people to be the civic leaders of tomorrow.

Highlights:

- Meet high school students from around your community
- Speak directly with community leaders, including government officials
- Develop your leadership, advocacy, and public speaking skills
- Receive $100 award upon completion of the program

For more information or to complete an application online visit www.metroyouthadvocates.org. Applications are due on Wednesday, January 8, 2014. Selected participants will be notified by January 13, 2014. For questions, contact Nina Cameron at nina@kymca.org.

WHEN: Program kickoff January 29, 2013, 4:30 – 7:00 PM
