1 An act to enforce Sweden’s sex trafficking law, as well as surrounding countries with a vast amount of
2 immigrants who migrate to Sweden.
3

4 Be it hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the United Nations

5
6 Justification Clause: In 1995, Sweden passed a law that would attempt to put a stop on prostitution.
7 Through this law, it wasn’t going to be the women who sold their bodies who got punished, but instead
8 those who choose to purchase and/or participate in the sex trafficking that is occurring in Sweden. Over the 9 years, people have found loop holes in the system by bringing foreign girls to Sweden, promising them jobs,
10 in return for selling their bodies.
11

12 Section I: The current punishments for purchasing sex in Sweden range from fines to prison time, however no
13 one yet has been arrested. If people would begin getting punishments such as jail time, it will show people
14 how serious Sweden officials are about this law.
15

16 Section II: To assist in stopping sex trafficking in Sweden, immigration laws will be made more specific
17 pertaining to young women who are tricked into coming to Sweden, just to in turn be sold into sex slavery.
18 The UN can assist in creating a policy that will allow victims of this to remain legally in the country, obtaining
19 a work visa/ID to avoid deportation.
20

21 Section III: Countries included in the UN will be responsible for holding conferences and informing their 22 citizens on the hardships that have been endured by victims of sex trafficking.
23

24 Section IV: This proposal will go into effect six months after passage.
