1	An act to combine the Middle Eastern economies.
2
3	Be it hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the United Nations
4
5	Justification Clause: The conflict between Israel and its Arab neighbors is a decades, if not centuries old
6	conflict that has not been successfully resolved through peace talks yet. Our proposal is to unite the
7	economies of the middle eastern countries to help ease the conflict and differences between these countries.
8	By uniting the economies of these countries, much like the European Union, resources can be shared
9	between affluent and poor countries and trade opportunities will be opened. By strengthening and linking
10	the economies of the middle eastern countries, they will be less likely to resort to war to end their conflicts.
11 12	Costion I. Depresentatives from each middle eastern country will form the Middle East Union. This union will

14	between countries.
15	between countries.
16	Section II: Each country will elect 10 representatives to be in the Middle East Union. These representatives
17	will problem solve and vote on economic issues within the region. The United Nations DESA, Department of
18	Economic and Social Affairs will advise and assist the representatives in developing and carrying out the
19	policies and programmes it approves.
20
21	Section III: All the countries of the Middle East will be responsible for appointing or electing their 10
22	representatives and the UN DESA will provide the resources to assist and advise the new Middle East Union
23	in establishing a common currency and open trade markets.
