5 6 7 8	Section 1: The Commonwealth's pension system currently has $12.4 billion in liabilities. The Commonwealth only has $2,356,000 available, just 19% of the funds required. The majority of these funds were lost in the recent stock market crashes, as this money is kept in investments. Section 2: The pension system is set to pay out $200 million this year in benefits. The current budget puts only $130.7 million in. This is a net loss of nearly $70 million.
