DAY TWO

MORNING

Wake-up, Breakfast, Starting the Day's Debate: Once curfew ends students are welcome to leave their sleeping rooms, get breakfast, and prepare as needed for the day's activities. On day two delegations will spend about half their day debating at the hotel and the other half debating in chambers at the Capitol or Capitol Annex in Frankfort. Specific timing for breakfast, bus loading, and commencement of debate will differ depending on whether your delegation starts the day at the hotel or by transporting to Frankfort. Please check your agenda to determine the schedule for your delegation's assigned "tag" (red or blue). Please note that all delegates should be in business professional attire for all the day's programming.
